

TRYING TO MAKE HARRIMAN TELL

Argument on Refusal to Answer Heard by Court.

THE GOVERNMENT OPENS

District Attorney Declares Harriman's Testimony Before Interstate Commission Containing Shows "Purpose of a Stock Jobbing Operation."

New York, Nov. 14.—Agreement is in the proceeding brought by the Interstate commission to compel E. H. Harriman to answer a series of questions relating to the purchase of stock in various railroads in the interest of the Union Pacific system and to the interests in the Union Pacific division, was again before Judge Douglass in the United States circuit court yesterday.

Judge Douglass said he would allow each side time and one half hours to present their case. United States District Attorney Skinner opened for his interstate commerce commission. He said that the commission, before starting the investigation during which Mr. Harriman was called, had asked the questions which he has denied to answer related to the purchase of the stock of other railroads in the interest of the Union Pacific and to the Union Pacific division, including the $25,000,000

John G. McIlvane opened the argument in behalf of Mr. Harriman. The sole question, he said, is whether or not the power to make the inquiry involved in these proceedings is vested in a corporation, an inferior body like the Interstate Commerce Commission, whose power is purely a delegated one. "I will never concede," he said, "that the proposition of the commission is correct."

"Mr. Harriman was asked when he bought the Illinois Central stock. I think it is a question of private business, what can be private business?" demanded Mr. McIlvane.

Underlying the whole case, Mr. Skinner said, is the fundamental right of an individual to protect his liberty of action by the constitution of the United States. The liberality of the individual can only be interfered with by one person of law and for the common good of such large cause of law, the attorney contended, rests with the Interstate commission.

District Attorney Skinner said the constitutionality of a statute was not under consideration. Mr. Harriman, he declared, was trying to cut Congress off from even considering a statute which might affect certain of the financial operations of his lines.

"They are trying to cut Congress from inquiring into facts upon which legislation may be based," continued Mr. Skinner.

Mr. Skinner asserted that immoral and improper transactions were responsible for the position in which some of the railroads now find themselves. He quoted Robert Mather, president of the Long Island railroad, as saying that railroads directors who purchased stock from him were largely responsible for the state of affairs which has swept the country.

"It requires a large amount of nerve for Mr. Harriman to claim that the Union Pacific stock transactions are matters of private business," exclaimed Mr. Skinner, who added that even if the information tended to incriminate a witness it could not be withheld from the commission, immunity from prosecution being automatically extended to such cases.

Mr. Skinner restated the various purchases of the stock of other railroads by the Union Pacific and said:

"The words could more clearly indicate stock buying than Mr. Harriman's response at the investigation by the interstate commerce commission."

BURIED 87 HOURS; COMES OUT ALIVE

Some of Extended Miner Turned from House of Mourning to House of Mourning.

Rejoining.

Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 14.—At Yesterday's session of the American Federation of Labor a resolution leading to the suppression of the open shop movement in Los Angeles was introduced. It asks that every member of organized labor under the jurisdiction of the federation be assessed one cent a month for a year to finance the fight. In that way $20,000 would be raised and 75 organizers will be a permanent fight.

Representatives of the Typographical union, which will lead organized labor's fight, say the move was made by the open shop party. If the latter wins the campaign will be carried to other cities.

If it is anticipated, however, that there will be a permanent fight.

The motion was referred to the Socialism committee. There will be a vote before the convention ends.

LABOR PROBLEM

WORRIES FARMERS

National Grange Master Also Talks to Tax at Hartland Meeting.

Hartland, Nov. 14.—The National Grange, P. O. H., is here for the annual 40-day meeting. The first session yesterday in Post Guard hall, was for tax degree members.

In its address, the National Grange master said: "Agriculture represents more capital and gives direct employment to a greater number of people than any other single industry in the country." The 50,000 persons claimed under the head of agricultural population, have great scope to the value of about $10,000,000. The total volume of crops this year may be slightly less than the crop of 1906, but their cash farm value will be greater.

"The farm labor problem is one of the most serious problems that farmers face to solve. Many immigrants come from farms in their home countries, but when they reach us shun the attraction of city life and the wages paid in other industries keep them in cities."

"The tariff itself has been so prominent as a political issue as to make its discussion in a non-partisan organization like the grange as impossible, but the subject of its revision in a way to meet existing conditions, and especially as a contributor to the formation of trusts, is a non-partisan question."

The Victim of Drink

Needs Urine Treatment.

Drink first destroys ambition; breaks up ties of friendship; it kills and burns love and eventually destroys the family life.

Some of the best men in the world have been victims of drink and if there is not some member in your family that is afflicted with this disease, you are indeed fortunate.

Drink continually destroys the will power, and while the drunkard wants to do what you tell him, he wants a thousand times more the drink that he craves. Medical treatment is necessary to destroy the craving, and this urine will do.

It destroys the desire for liquor, so that the drink will not be missed, also cures the deranged digestion, weakened nerves and other ill effects of excessive drinking, restoring the patient to perfect health.

The remedy is absolutely harmless, is thoroughly scientific and is uniformly successful that it is sold with a registered guarantee entitling you to a refund of your money if the urine fails to effect a cure. Treatise on "How to Cure Drunkenness," free on request, in plain sealed wrapper. The Urine Co., Washington, D. C.

Urine in Two Forms, No. 1, which can be given secretly without the patient's knowledge; No. 2 in pill form for those who wish to be cured. The price of either is $1, mailed on receipt of price in plain sealed package, and both are sold under the guarantee.

Urine is for sale by Hickert & Wells, Barre, Vt.
